

POSITION PROFILE

Organization: Washington State Farmworker Housing Trust

Position Title: Social Media Volunteer

Location: Seattle, Washington

Reports to: Director of Development

Position Summary

The Washington State Farmworker Housing Trust (the Trust) is a nonprofit organization that works to ensure safe, affordable housing for farmworkers – providing homes for families, helping growers, and supporting rural communities across Washington.

The Trust is seeking a Social Media Volunteer to launch our social media community efforts. If you use Facebook, MySpace, Twitter, Digg, or YouTube and see their potential for outreach, organizing, and fundraising, then this is the position for you.

This is an ongoing opportunity, ideally at least two hours per week but we would welcome any additional time you have to offer! This volunteer position can be done from home. If you prefer, you can work from our office in Seattle on your laptop.

To Apply: Each applicant must submit a résumé by email to: info@farmworkerhousingtrust.org

To learn more about the Trust please visit our website at www.farmworkerhousingtrust.org